About BiBi

Authentic yet highly cosmopolitan, BiBi embraces the full variety of cuisines from the Indian subcontinent. The restaurant celebrates Indian food as light, elegant, and provenance-focused – all the better enjoyed in BiBi's convivial open kitchen counter or on the leafy terrace on North Audley Street.

Food

The ever-changing menu is seasonally led, as it always is in India, and taps into ancient wisdom in its use of herbs and spices – everything from ginger and mustard to sweet cicely and CBD. Here, too, is an opportunity to explore the rich heritage of Indian cuisine before the colonial introduction of tomatoes and chillies.

Divided into four sections, the menu reveals a focus on high impact and flavoursome spice blends, as well as wood and charcoal grilling. A relaxed and playful menu is influenced by the street carts and roadside cafés from Punjab in the north, to Kerala in the south.

Events

BiBi can host up to 32 guests inside the restaurant, while the outside terrace can accommodate up to 12 people on rattan chairs surrounded by verdant foliage. From the 13-seater kitchen counter overlooking the custom-built sigree, BiBi's guests can witness the meticulous detail and precision with which each dish takes shape.

BiBi can be hired exclusively for your party and is ideal for any occasion where you are looking for an intimate and lively atmosphere encompassed by the open kitchen and stunning interiors which perfectly reflect the concept of BiBi.

Interiors

The interiors present mango wood and sandstone furnishings, walls adorned with antique brass and abstract prints. An overall contemporary and simple design achieves authenticity through pockets of detail such as the curved mirrors which echo the classic rhythm of Rajasthani architecture. Intricate patterns on the walls and furniture reveal a fresh take on Indian design. Outside boasts a 12-seat terrace with rattan chairs and foliage aplenty.
